Lexcel Award

Taylor Walton LLP, with offices in Luton, Harpenden and St Albans, has once again achieved a major recognition for the quality of its legal service. The Lexcel quality mark, awarded by the Law Society, is only awarded to solicitors who meet the highest management and client care standards.

Lexcel accredited firms undergo rigorous independent assessment to ensure they meet required standards of excellence in areas such as client care, case management and risk management.

Law Society President, Paul Marsh, commented:

“By successfully gaining Lexcel accreditation, Taylor Walton is proving their commitment to delivering a high quality service. The Law Society’s Lexcel standard is a prestigious achievement for any practice. Clients can feel reassured that they will receive a service which is first class, committed, focused and businesslike.”

Risk Management Partner, Clive Borthwick, who oversaw the assessment, said:

“This is the fifth time Taylor Walton has been assessed and each time we have come through with flying colours. Very few law firms have achieved this. We are totally committed to client care and the delivery of a quality service.”
