

Press Release

24 September 2009

New Private Client Partner at Taylor Walton

Alex Drake, formerly Head of Private Client at Sherrards solicitors of St Albans, has joined Taylor Walton's Private Client team based at their Harpenden office.

Taylor Walton, which has the largest team of lawyers specialising in wills, probate and tax saving strategies in the Northern Home Counties, continues to expand its offering to high-net-worth individuals. Alex Drake, formerly with Sherrards of St Albans, is the latest partner to join its Private Client team, taking the total number of partners to four.

Alex Drake commented:

I am very excited to have joined such a prestigious firm known for its expertise and excellent client services. Taylor Walton is the leading firm in the Northern Home Counties for Private Client work and my move here allows me to continue to carry on looking after my existing clients and meet many new ones."

Richard Crocker, Head of Private Client commented:

"We are delighted to welcome Alex to Taylor Walton's Private Client department. Her knowledge and expertise in inheritance tax planning and the preparation of Wills and trusts are well known locally, and her arrival adds further strength and flair to our established team of specialist advisers."
