Lexcel Award for Taylor Walton

Taylor Walton LLP, with offices in Luton, Harpenden and St Albans, has received a major recognition for the quality of its legal services. The Lexcel quality mark, awarded by the Law Society, is only given to solicitors who meet the highest management and client care standards.

Lexcel accredited firms undergo a rigorous independent assessment to ensure they meet stringent practice management standards covering case management, office administration, financial management, risk assessment and good customer care.

The assessment occurs every three years with an annual inspection in the intervening years. This year's full assessment showed that Taylor Walton has continued to maintain its high quality standards.

Risk Management Partner, Clive Borthwick, who oversaw the assessment, said:

"This is the seventh time Taylor Walton has been assessed and each time we have come through with flying colours. There are literally thousands of law firms in the UK but proportionally very few achieve this level of quality. We are totally committed to client care and the delivery of a quality service."
